

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
AMARILLO DIVISION

NAPOLEON ALFARO,

Petitioner,

v.

2:06-CV-0339

NATHANIEL QUARTERMAN, Director,
Texas Department of Criminal Justice,
Correctional Institutions Division,

Respondent.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION TO DENY PETITION

Petitioner NAPOLEON ALFARO is presently confined in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice-Correctional Institutions Division pursuant to a twenty (20) year sentence assessed on or about August 8, 1996, out of the 282nd Judicial District Court, Dallas County, Texas. Petitioner is currently incarcerated in the Dalhart Unit, Hartley County, Texas.

Petitioner ALFARO initiated this action by filing, on December 7, 2006, a pleading entitled "Petitioner's Motion for Speedy Deportation." By this pleading, petitioner requests that an Order issue directing petitioner's release from the Texas Department of Criminal Justice-Correctional Institutions Division (TDCJ-ID), and ordering his immediate transfer to the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) for a hearing and deportation.

After review of the pleadings submitted by petitioner ALFARO, it is clear that while he does seek immediate deportation from the United States to his home country, he must first obtain and is primarily seeking release from TDCJ-ID.

I.
EXHAUSTION

Petitioner has not shown he has exhausted available state court remedies in seeking his release from state custody. This Court may, however, deny an unexhausted habeas petition. See 28 U.S.C. § 2254(b)(2). It is the opinion of the Court that petitioner is not entitled to any relief. Therefore, this case should be heard rather than dismissed for failure to exhaust state court remedies.

II.
MERITS

Other than his desire to avoid serving the twenty (20) year sentence, petitioner has provided the Court with no legal basis that he should immediately be released from TDCJ-ID, nor has he cited any legal authority authorizing this Court to order his immediate release from TDCJ-ID. Petitioner has not challenged his underlying conviction and sentence in any manner. He has been convicted and is now obligated to serve his sentence in TDCJ-ID unless Texas authorities choose to release him by granting parole or some other form of conditional release. Since petitioner has failed to provide any legal basis justifying his release from the penitentiary, he is not entitled to relief.

Further, even if this Court were to construe his petition as a request that the federal immigration authorities immediately take ALFARO into custody and deport him, petitioner has failed to provide a legal basis for such an action, nor has he shown that he exhausted administrative remedies by requesting such action by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, or their successor agency. Further, Title 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(4)(A) provides that the Attorney General may not remove an alien sentenced to imprisonment until the alien is released from imprisonment. Lastly, any request by ALFARO for this Court to order INS to immediately deport him is not ripe for adjudication unless and until ALFARO is actually released from TDCJ-ID and is in the custody of federal immigration officials.

III.
RECOMMENDATION

Based upon the foregoing, it is the opinion and finding of the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge that the petition for writ of habeas corpus filed by petitioner NAPOLEON ALFARO be DENIED.

IV.
